MAKE THIS VALENTINE’S DAY SPECIAL WITH A SCHOLA CANTORUM SING-ALONG

Looking for a creative way to say I love you on Valentine’s Day? Instead of the cliched roses and chocolates, treat your sweetheart, friend, or family member to the gift of song at Schola Cantorum’s Valentine’s Day Sing, Sunday, February 14 at 3:00 PM at the Los Altos United Methodist Church.

Celebrate love or friendship with the most romantic songs of all time, from Broadway and movie tunes to hits by the Beatles, Elvis, and others. Led by assistant conductor and piano accompanist Dawn Reyen, the words for each song are projected on a screen so anyone can easily follow along. Almost Like Being in Love, When I Fall in Love, and oldies like Let Me Call You Sweetheart are just a few of the endearing melodies selected by Reyen. Chances are you’ll discover a new love song as you hold hands with your sweetheart and sing away the afternoon—a perfect setup for a romantic dinner.

Schola Cantorum is known for its popular sing-alongs, including the recent salute to Broadway. The Valentine’s Day event “...allows us to branch out from strictly show tunes to the standards,” says Reyen. She’ll include a little history or trivia about each song to add an educational element to the fun.

Singles are encouraged to join in this giant love-song fest as well. “If you don’t sing in a choir or think you have a solo-worthy voice, you can blend in with 180 other voices and no one will give you a dirty look,” promises Reyen.

“Since the beginning of time, people have written love songs,” she says. “Singing about love is good for the heart, body, and soul. What better way to spend a day of romance and friendship?”

Tickets are $15, and may be purchased online at www.scholacantorum.org, by calling 650-254-1700, or at the door prior to the event.
